

Deuteronomy - Commentaries by Paul J. Pascoe

CareLines: Volume 3, Home (8:7-9)

DEU 8:7-9

For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land . . . wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness.

Deut. 8:7, 9

God has our eternal blessing in view. His earthly people were promised a terrific “home” in the land of Canaan. Everything would be perfect with an ample supply for all. So it is with our home in heaven. Absolute perfection. Nothing lacking, and all the things of this life gone forever. The Father’s house is to be our home for eternity. Are you going there?

CareLines: Volume 2, Blessed (8:7-9)

DEU 8:7-9

For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land. . . . Thou shalt not lack any thing in it.

Deut. 8:7, 9

In Ephesians we are told that we have been blessed “with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ” (ch. 1:3). We lack nothing - spiritually. God has given us everything “richly to enjoy.” God holds nothing back. In a sense now, but in a full measure in heaven, we will not find anything missing. Absolute perfection, happiness, and full contentment will be ours for eternity. God already sees us as there. Are we enjoying it?

CareLines: Volume 3, My Words (11:18)

AUGUST 4

Therefore shall ye lay up these My words in your heart and in your soul.

Deuteronomy 11:18

This verse follows a warning about turning aside from the Lord to serve other gods. A preventative “medicine” to stop this is to fill our hearts and our souls with God’s Word. How much do we value the Scriptures? They are worth making a part of our daily routine, part of our regular diet. God’s Word. It always comes to pass.

CareLines: Volume 3, Heaven on Earth (11:21)

AUGUST 2

That your days may be multiplied . . . as the days of heaven upon the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:21

This promise to Israel was conditional on their dedication to keeping God’s Word. Its principle, though, seems to hold true today. If our interest and time is in devotedness to the Word of God, we will have a very happy life. And what will life be like in heaven? Very happy.
