Christian Truth: Volume 27, Enoch (11:5)

What was true of Enoch before he was translated? "He had this testimony, that he pleased God" (Heb. 11:5). What does that mean? He had the consciousness in his own soul that he was doing that which was pleasing to God. Do we not all desire that? Let us ask ourselves, Is God pleased with my daily walk and conversation? This testimony that Enoch had is worth very much.
